MULLIN CAUSE OF IT ALL

Allows Wolverton's Men Only Three Hits, Which, of Course, Were Not Fruitful.

Facing a real high grade brand of pitching for the first time in about two weeks, the run manufacturing plant of the New York Yankees shut down completely through lack of power and the team narrowly escaped being shut out by the Detroit Tigers at American League Park yesterday afternoon. Old George Mullin discovered that he had another perfectly good championship game in his sterling right arm and he proceeded to unload it on the hapless followers of Wolverton. Three hits of immaculate cleanliness was a limit of his indulgence and he won his game in a walk by a score of 5 to 7 Victory put the Tigers at the top of th recond division, shead of the Philadelphia Athletics, while the Yankees remained in statu quo, the St. Louis Browns feeling quite at home and unwilling to move Ray Caldwell appeared in the points for New York after a long rest. His line of wares had considerable quality and on the whole it was his best exhibition of the He had the ball breaking well, but couldn't begin to control it and that nine passes which he gave accumted a large measure for his downfall.

Up to the ninth inning he allowed o four hits, pulling out of ugly looking pl falls with much aplemb. The Tigers c lected three safeties in the ninth for two runs, bringing their total of hits for the up to seven, which could hardly be alled a batting fest. Ray fanned seven men, but a wild pitch with a man on taird and a hit bastman showed that he is far Star Pitcher Not at His Best, and from being in his best form.

The Detroit bulwarks with Louden on third and Jones in left field were not invulnerable, but with a capable marksman on the firing line the defences were strong erough to hold the Yunkees in handle only five chances. Moriarity was The score was 7 to 9, fer from another Hal Chase at first base.
